

CAPE PTSO presents...

Assemblies with Author [s]

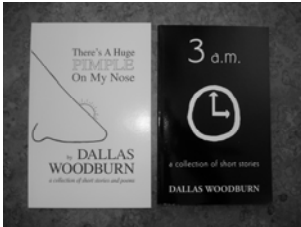

Journey into the land of imagination with three remarkable authors on Wednesday, March 24. Plus, pre-order your personally-signed books!

NED'S NEW HOME: A rotting apple is no place for a kind-hearted worm like Ned, so off he sets to look for a new home. A pear doesn't feel quite right... And a watermelon seems too spacious... That pile of blueberries? All wrong! This book's lighthearted text and vibrant watercolors will have children searching right along with Ned until he finds the perfect place to call his own.
$14.00 hardcover / kindergarten through second grade Author: Kevin Tseng

ONCE UPON A COOL MOTORCYCLE DUDE is a classic, collage style, fractured fairy tale. Three kids- two boys and a girl- are supposed to retell a favorite fairy tale. They can't decide what story to tell, so they make up their own. Their story begins with the beautiful Princess Tenderheart. When the story begins, Princess Tenderheart has eight ponies. Each night, despite all of her best efforts, someone comes and steals one of the ponies, until finally, she is left with only her favorite, a pony named Buttercup. Then a cool motorcycle dude steps in to save the day...
$15 hardcover / third through fifth grade Author: Carol Heyer

THERE'S A HUGE PIMPLE ON MY NOSE: a collection of stories and poems:
$5 paperback / middle school Author: Dallas Woodburn

3 A.M.: a collection of stories, featured on the national PBS book talk show "Between the Lines" $13 paperback / middle school Author: Dallas Woodburn

Please complete and print.

1. STUDENT'S FIRST AND LAST NAME

GRADE _____ ROOM NO. _____ TEACHER _____

2. STUDENT'S FIRST AND LAST NAME

GRADE _____ ROOM NO. _____ TEACHER _____

Title	Cost	Qty	Total
Ned's New Home	$14
Once Upon Motorcycle Dude	$15
A Huge Pimple on my Nose	$5
3 a.m.	$13
		Total

Please turn in order form by MARCH 16, 2010. Books will be signed by authors in advance and given to students during the assembly.

Make checks payable to CAPE PTSO.

Special thanks to Mrs. Figs Bookworm!